

Adjective suffixes

Write the correct adjective forms of the words in brackets and then discuss with your partner.

1. A famous person who you think is _____ (attract).
2. A job where you need to be _____ (persuade).
3. A kind of animal you think is particularly _____ (love).
4. A kind of business you think is _____ (profit).
5. A piece of clothing you have or would like that is _____ (fashion).
6. A subject you were _____ (hope) at when you were at school.
7. A task you sometimes have to do that you think is _____ (point).
8. An illness that is usually _____ (prevent).
9. An invention or app you think is _____ (use).
10. How _____ (produce) are you at work?
11. In what ways are you _____ (waste)?
12. Someone you know who is _____ (artist).
13. Someone you don't like being with because they are _____ (humour).
14. Someone you know who is _____ (knowledge) about something.
15. Something that is not _____ (vision) to the naked eye.
16. Something you are _____ (response) for at work.
17. The health effects of not being _____ (act) enough.
18. The most _____ (effect) way of learning a language.
19. A minor accident that is always _____ (pain).
20. The most _____ (peace) place you know.
21. Three jobs where you need to be _____ (imagine).
22. Two activities that are not _____ (law) in your country.
23. What you do when you are feeling _____ (energy).