

Idioms with secrets - gap fill

1 It was supposed to be a secret, but Liz let the cat _____. _____. out of the bag	2 We're having a surprise party for Andy, so don't give the _____. _____. game away	3 The negotiations were held behind _____, so no one knew what was said. _____. closed doors
4 No one knows much about him as he keeps himself to _____. _____. himself	5 I didn't want anyone to know we were getting married but my mum let it _____. _____. slip	6 So when is the wedding day? Come on, spill _____! _____! the beans
7 If anyone finds out about this, I'm in big trouble. So just keep _____. _____. schtum	8 You can trust me. I've never knowingly _____ a secret. _____. divulged	9 Janet keeps getting flowers. I think she's got a _____! _____! secret admirer