

Adverbs and gradable and non-gradable adjectives rubbish. I've never used anything so badly designed.	Although it was cheap, it was surprisingly	well-made. It lasted over ten years.	Corporate lawyers are ridiculously well-paid. They get more in a month than I get in a year.	I complained and said that I was extremely	disappointed with the holiday and wanted a refund.	The management where I work are really supportive. They are always ready to listen.	My last boss was a total	control freak. She wanted to know everything you did.	My first job was mind-numbingly dull. I had to pack socks in packets all day long.	That chocolate cake looks absolutely	gorgeous. I think I'll have a piece.	The bus journey up the mountain was a complete nightmare. I was too scared to look out of the window.	The underground caves were just	mind-blowing. I've never seen anything like it.	The emperor's ceremonial robes were absolutely gorgeous. Pure silk embroidered with gold and silver.	The food at the hotel was absolute	muck. I wouldn't have given it to my dog.	The restaurant was surprisingly good value. Where else could you get a three-course meal for $10?	The sheets in our room were unbelievably	filthy. There was no way I was going to sleep on them.	The soup was rather bland. It didn't taste of anything much.	The service in the restaurant was shockingly	bad. The waiters just couldn't care less.	This printer is absolute