

Team A – Question making

1. You shouldn't touch people on the head in Thailand.
In which...
2. Hong Kong gets more tourists (27.9 million) than Singapore (13.9 million).
Which...
3. You can see the Doge's Palace, St Mark's Cathedral and the Bridge of Sighs in Venice.
Where...
4. The Taj Mahal was built in 1632 by the emperor Shah Jahan as a mausoleum for his favourite wife.
What was built...
5. The world's longest non-stop flight is from Singapore to New York (19 hours).
Between which...

Team A – Question making - solution

1. In which country shouldn't you touch people on the head?
2. Which gets more tourists, Hong Kong or Singapore?
3. Where can you see the Doge's Palace, St Mark's Cathedral and the Bridge of Sighs?
4. What was built in 1632 by the emperor Shah Jahan as a mausoleum for his favourite wife?
5. Between which two cities is the world's longest non-stop flight and how long does it take?

Team B – Question making

1. You can see ancient Egyptian tombs in the Valley of the Kings.
What...
2. If you go to the beach in eastern Spain, southern France or western Italy, you will swim in the Mediterranean Sea.
In which sea...
3. France gets more international tourists than any other country.
Which...
4. Tourists throw around 3000 euros every day in coins into the Trevi Fountain in Rome.
Into which...
5. The Channel Tunnel is a 50-kilometer rail tunnel that links the ports of Dover in England and Calais in France.
Which two...

Team B – Question making - solution

1. What can you see in the Valley of the Kings?
2. In which sea will you swim if you go to the beach in eastern Spain, southern France or western Italy?
3. Which country gets more international tourists than any other?
4. Into which fountain do tourists throw around 3000 euros every day?
5. Which two ports are linked by the Channel Tunnel?